

Kicking Cancer's Ass...

(This exclusive Active Voice series on cancer and health and healing is a work in progress)

In previous segments... Especially for those who have been told to go home and die by self-appointed omnipotent medical experts, or who have loved ones being told there is no hope to become healthy again, Active Voice Publisher Ron McEntee began his series on cancer and health and healing: "...One thing I do believe with all my heart is that fear is itself afraid of love. Fear will run from love because it will be destroyed by it. And the first step of being destroyed by cancer is to allow fear to pervade rather than love, and to allow hope to be exterminated rather than nurtured so that it can blossom and grow and bear fruit and heal..."

Part Two of "Kicking Cancer's Ass" included McEntee's emphasis on "The power within" along with a story concerning the history of Essiac called "Ojibwa Herbal Tea: Indian myth or healing remedy?"

In Part Three, "Christine's story" was told, a powerful first-person narrative detailing one teenager's bout with cancer, her subsequent victory, and her message to fellow cancer fighters.

In Part Four, "Let the healing begin," McEntee re-aired his previously published reference guide, "Here's to Your Health," for those wishing to begin a self-study into little publicized natural medicinal methods. Reference contacts were shared as well as an urge for people, especially in matters of health and healing, to "always believe in yourself. Believe in your own abilities to love and to be loved, to care and to be cared for, and to search for and draw your own judgements about 'the truth.'"

Part Five featured "Caring about curing cancer," a response to this series from an Active Voice reader.

Part Six focused on a "miracle" herb called pau d'arco and its abilities and history of fighting cancer.

Part Seven talked about media and medical monopolies and the dangerous interplay between the two. It also mentioned the names of herbalist Dr. John R. Christopher, scientist Royal Raymond Rife, and "un-qualified" healer Harry Hoxsey, whose suppressed healing success stories should and shall be told.

Part Eight talked again of Christopher and offered feedback from readers on pau d'arco and suppressed healing methods.

In Part Nine, Bob Houchins of Port Charlotte, Florida narrated the story of Royal Raymond Rife, "one of the most fascinating and horrifying tales ever told." Rife was an American scientist who discovered a method and created an instrument that cured cancer in the 1930s. His reward was similar to that given to anyone who attempts to put genuine healing and caring over money and power. Both he and his answers to the cancer problem were driven underground.

Part Ten highlighted and urged self-studies of herbal healers Dr. John R. Christopher and Dr. Richard Schulze and the Sam Biser Save Your Life Herbal Video Collection.

Part Eleven told the amazing story of Harry Hoxsey, who took a handed-down herbal remedy and opened up his first cancer clinic in Illinois in 1924. By the 1950s Hoxsey had clinics in 17 states, but by 1963 the medical establishment and friends in government finally forced him to take his services to Mexico, where Americans who know about it still journey to rid themselves of cancer.

Part Twelve covered "The Legacy of Edgar Cayce." Emphasis was placed on "the father of holistic medicine's" mind/body/spirit philosophies and information was shared about related Cayce 'readings', Cayce health products, and Cayce's Association of Research and Enlightenment, Inc.

Part Thirteen, a submission from an Active Voice reader, was a discussion and testimonial involving "Natural Hygiene," also referred to as "Life Science," a health system that teaches how to live in harmony with nature and our biological makeup.

Part Fourteen offered testimony from a former officer of Cancer Victims Anonymous and railed against the stranglehold the AMA and FDA and others have upon consumer choices in medicine.

Part Fifteen, written by long-time Active Voice reader and medical researcher Thomas W. Lippitt, covered "The battles beyond 'the war': A history of suppressed cures & healings."

Part Sixteen told the story of German-born doctor Max Gerson's methods of successfully curing cancer, as well as his battle against dictators ~ a famous one in Europe named Hitler and a secret one in America still thriving today.

Part Seventeen introduced the latest "alternative" in cancer therapies. Naturopath Thomas W. Lippitt discussed coral calcium and ellagic acid and offered numerous references for readers to research on their own.

In Part Eighteen Thomas W. Lippitt offered the latest from his own cancer curing research library in an article titled "Oxygen and Organic Calcium." Lippitt also shared an adjoining health piece called "The vaccination epidemic."

Part Nineteen, "The truth will set you free," recommended three books for readers interested in arming themselves with information to help them reach their own conclusions about politics, cancer and healing.

Part Twenty, "Arm Yourself," offered more book titles and information for those who care to arm themselves with knowledge and options rather than depending upon biased and questionable practitioners and 'experts.'

Part Twenty-One highlighted red clover's role as a long-time leading herbal ally in the fight against cancer.

Part Twenty-Two, "The war against curing cancer: When quacks cry 'Quackery!'" focused mainly on Barry Lynes' book, The Healing of Cancer: The Cures - the Covers and the Solution Now! (1989) and the unholly state of powerful entities that actually do more to thrive on cancer than they do to cure it.

Part Twenty-Three returned to the herbal field for more strong batches of red clover, offering further testimony to its curative abilities.

Part Twenty-Four once again looked into the spiritual dimension of healing, a dimension ignored by experts who arrogantly tout man-made potions and synthetic drugs over God's offerings. Highlights included a discussion of the book, The Spiritual Properties of Herbs, a powerful work that ties intelligent scientific theory to universal, natural laws.

A Revolutionary Idea!

Dr. Benjamin Rush, co-signer of the Declaration of Independence and Revolutionary War hero, issued an astounding prophesy over 200 years ago:

"Unless we put medical freedom into the Constitution, the time will come when medicine will organize itself into an undercover dictatorship. To restrict the art of healing to one class of men and deny equal privileges to others will constitute the Bastille of medical science. All such laws are un-American and despotic."

Today while we sleep the medical "dictatorship" in Rush's vision thrives. Politicians and "the people" are debating loudly over health care coverage and methods and strategies involved, but no one is getting to the root of the problem. And that root is in our hearts, where fear has overtaken love, and where truth has given way to deception and people are too often putting their hopes and dreams and very lives into the hands of establishments and self-anointed gods who do more punishing than curing. ~ Ron McEntee, Publisher

Why are we cheering politicians promising prescriptions?

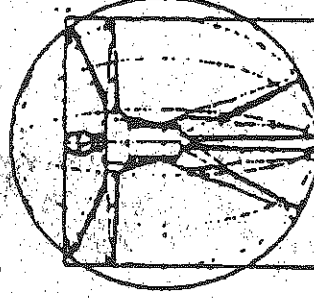

Democratic and Republican politicians, painted by the centralized media as our only two choices in every election, continue vying for votes by promising to "give" the people something they don't need; something the people should be in charge of themselves; yet still something the blind masses won't stop whooping and clapping about. Those who wish to still think for themselves and also control their own health should do some checking up on prescription pills, the drug industry, and interaction between the powerful in medicine, the media and the government. Simply start by studying books which list the endless side-effects and dangerous interactions of the very prescription drugs your favorite politicians would like to let you buy for others with your money. It's hard to believe. We the People have become this dumb. In essence we are allowing questionably financed political party puppets to promise to allow us to poison one another with our own tax dollars. And "watchdogs" from "the free press" lie eerily silent.
